In Proceedings No.J2998-99/ Cts 34-07-6 dated the 28th March 1908, Government sanctioned the entertainment of 12 temporary hands at a cost of Rs.175 per mensem for a period of five years in order to deal with the large number of records that remained to be sotted in the Central Records of the Bangalore Division. The Chief Court now report that, by October 1912, a little more than 9 lakhs of records were sorted, leaving a lakh and three quarters to be dealt with and that this work would take about 17 months.

In submitting this report, the Chief Court state that there has been an increase in the work of the Central Records of the Bangalore Division owing to the steady growth of business in the Civil Courts in the Division and that the permanent establishment therefore requires strengthening. They propose that the marginally noted additional establishment may be sanctioned for the Central Records and that the temporary establishment now attached thereto may be dispensed with as the arrears of work can also be cleared by the proposed additional establishment.

To,

The SECRETARY to the Govt: of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments.

(Through the COMPTROLLER, Government of Mysore)

S i r,

Adverting to the Proceedings of Government No. J.2998-99/Cts. 34-07-6 dated the 28th March 1908, sanctioning the entertainment of a temporary establishment of 12 hands for a period of five years for the purpose of clearing the arrears of work in the Central Records of the Bangalore Division, I am directed to state that from April 1908 to October 1912 the temporary establishment dealt with and sorted 9, 16, 286 records and there are still 1,74, 043 records to be sorted and it is estimated that this work will take about 17 months. The officer in charge of the Central Records urges that in addition to continuing the temporary establishment for the said period it is absolutely necessary to strengthen the permanent establishment.

The Bangalore Division has 10 civil Courts, nearly half

the

the number of courts in the State, and the work in these Courts has been steadily increasing. The increase of cases disposed of results in a corresponding increase of work in the Central Records. The present establishment is the same as that of the Mysore Central Records, but the number of courts in that division is only 8. The Judges of the Chief Court are satisfied as to the necessity for increasing the present establishment by the addition of one clerk on Rs. 20/-, one clerk on Rs. 15/-, one Daftarband on Rs. 10/- and one peon on Rs. 7/-. The continuance of the present temporary establishment will then be unnecessary as the increased establishment can with a little exertion clear off the arrears in addition to keeping the current work abreast. A peon is necessary to dust the records regularly, to deliver tappals to local offices and to carry parcels of records to the Post Office for transmission to mofussil stations.

A proposition statement involving an extra cost of - Rs. 52/- per mensem is enclosed, and I am to request the favour of very early orders as the period sanctioned by Government in their Proceedings ~~xx~~ of 28th March 1908 expires on the 31st March 1913.

The extra costs for the months of April and May next may be met out of the lump sum provision of Rs. 2,000/- made in

the

the Budget for Temporary Process Establishments.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

10.	2	1,10,455.	The number of records sorted and destroyed during the year ending 31st March 1913, is less than the figure given in the previous year by about 39,576: The difference is due to the fact that the clerks experienced some difficulty in applying the Rule of Practice No. 149 dated 10th July 1911 to the old records many of which were bulky. Each record had to be divided into different files and each file had to be stitched by the clerk himself. This occupied more time than the average time required to deal with each record
